European Youthwork through Generational Lens

Breaza, Romania
21-28 May 2025

Context

About the Project

How do generational differences shape youth work in Europe?

This training course explores how different generations engage in youth work, activism, and learning. You'll discover how to adapt and innovate your approach to remain relevant in an evolving world.

Through non-formal education methods and experiential learning, participants will explore:

- The evolution of youth work and generational identities
- Stereotypes and intergenerational dynamics
- Methodologies adapted to new generations
- Cross-generational collaboration
- The digital impact on communication styles

Objectives

By the end of this course, you will:

- Develop adaptive youth work strategies
- Enhance communication across age groups
- Design relevant non-formal learning tools
- Bridge generational gaps in European contexts

You landed in Bucharest!

Upon your arrival to the Henri Coanda Airport (OTP) if you follow the signs to the railway station, you will reach the train that can take you to the main station of Bucharest - click here to buy tickets online for this train ride, don't worry, you will also have access to busses or taxi/Uber. The train leaves every 40 minutes.

You are at the București Nord railway station!

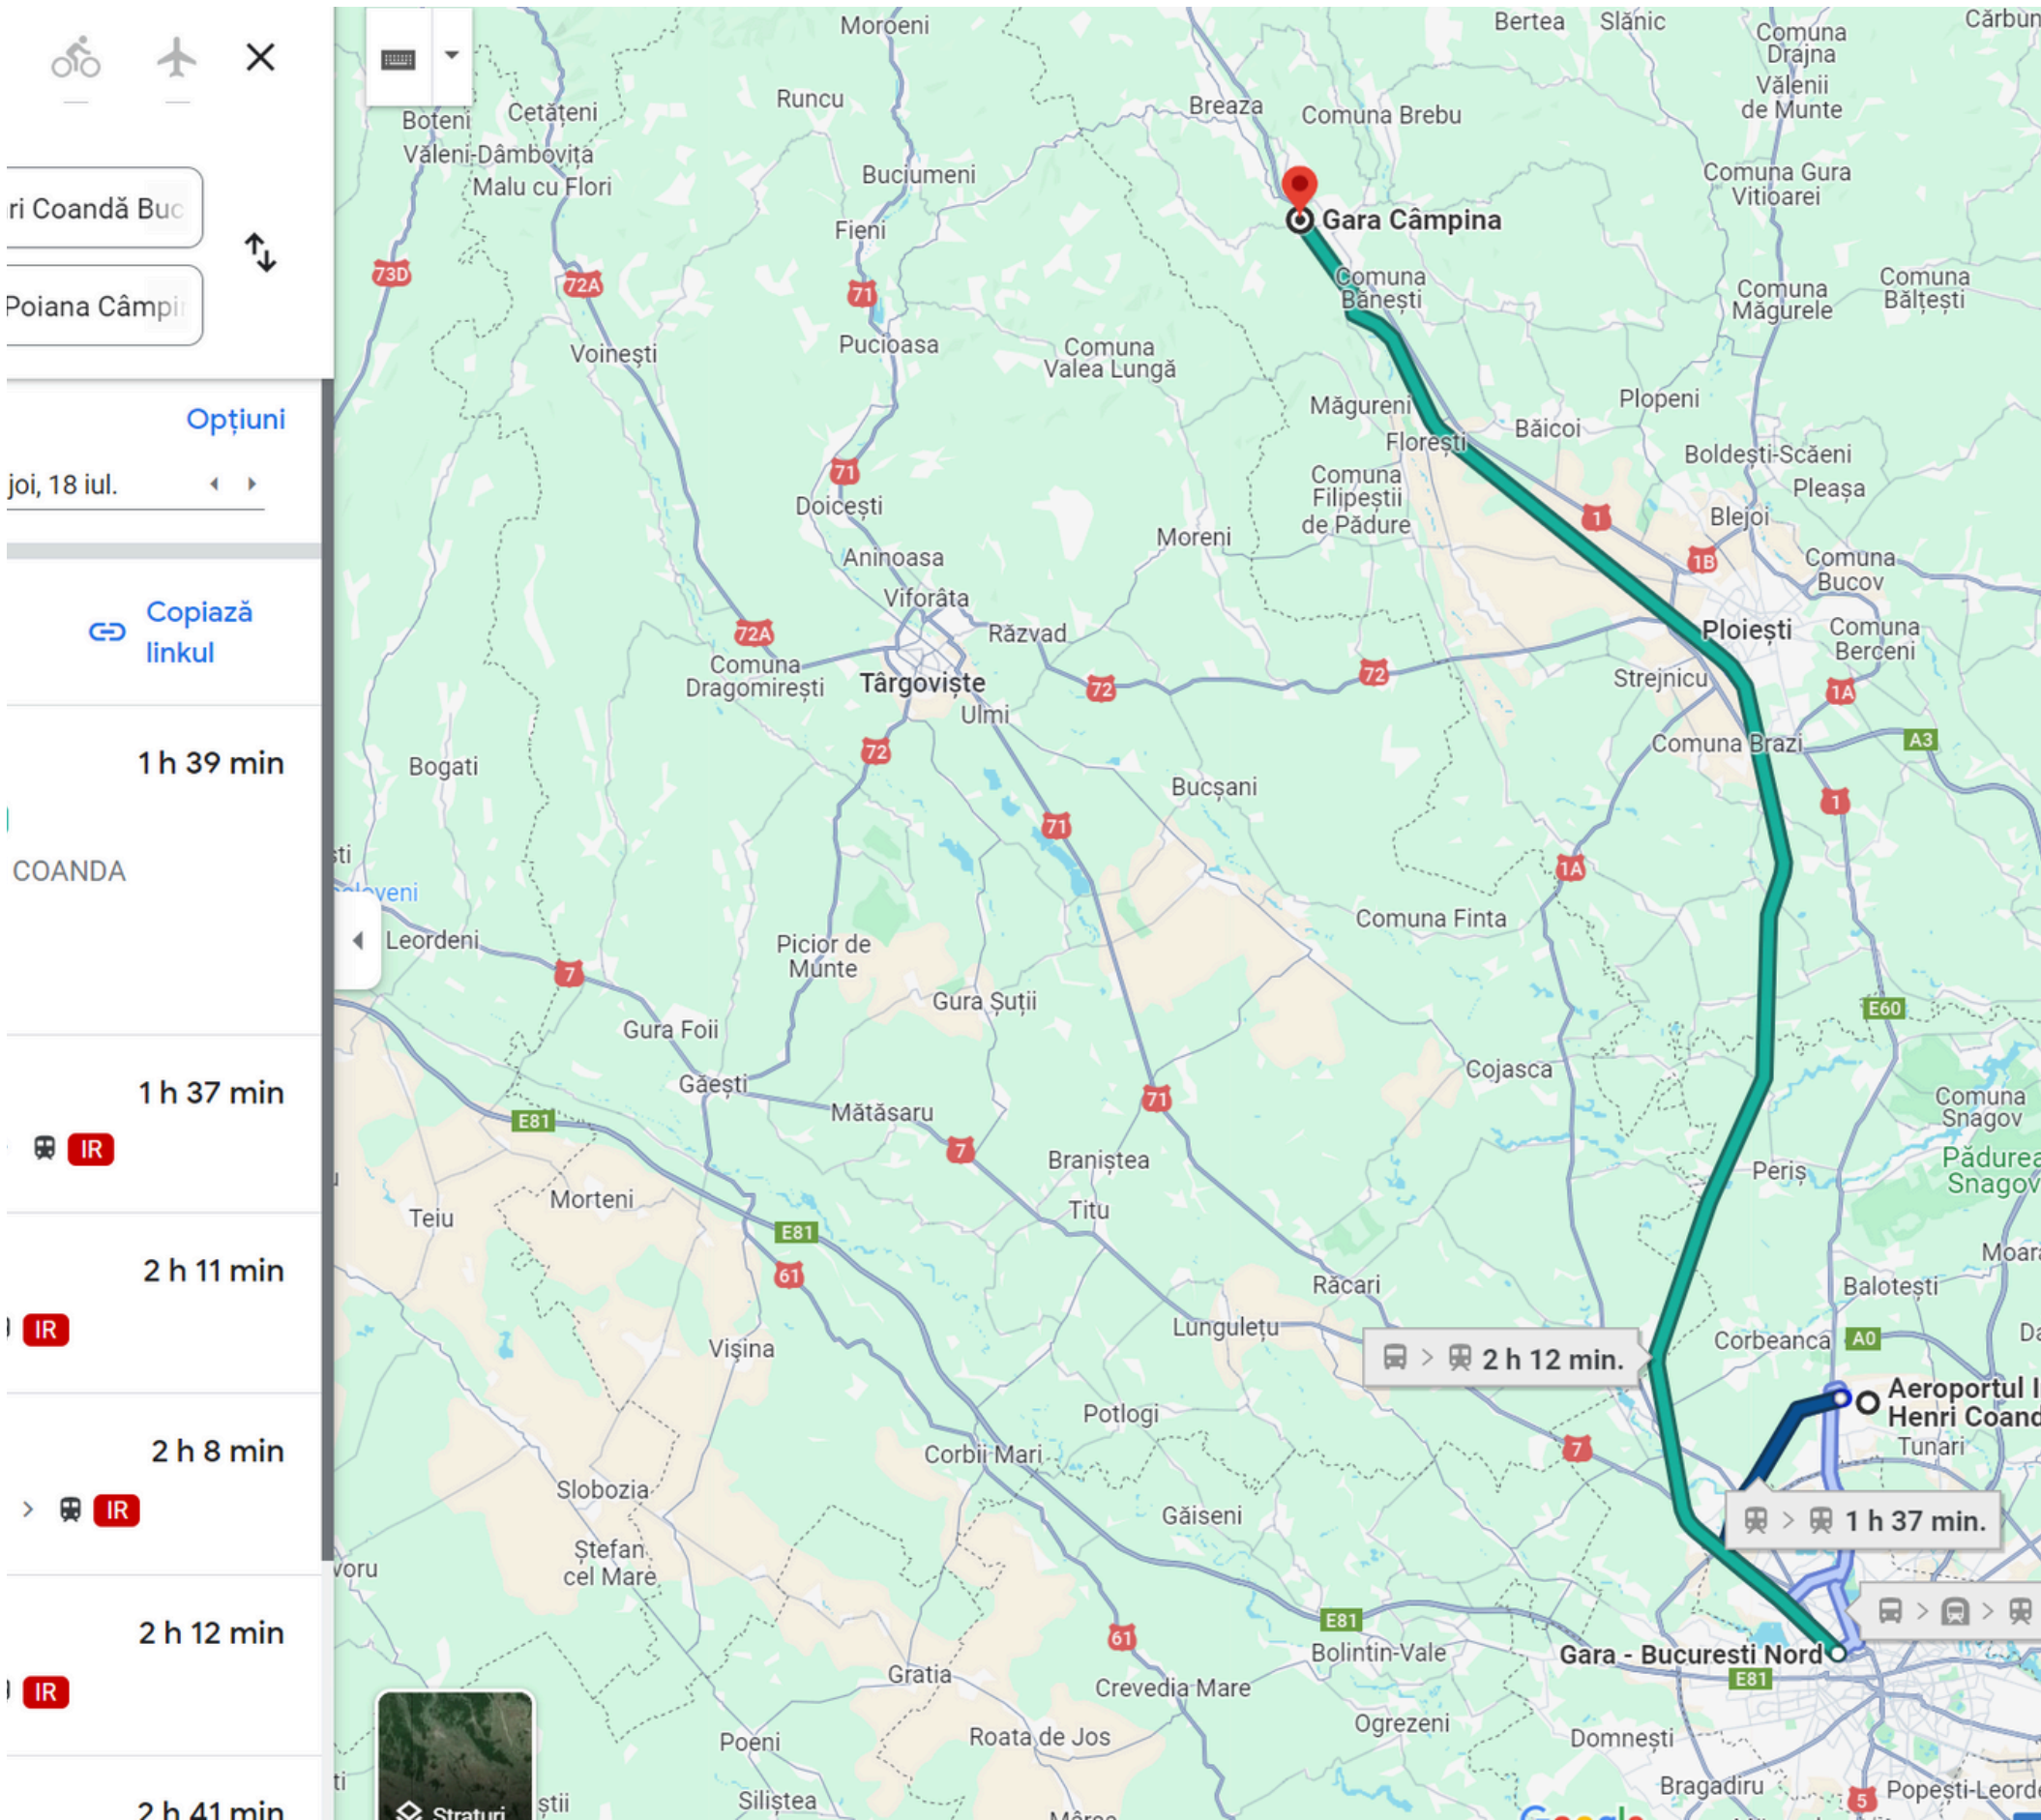

From here you can get on the train from Bucuresti Nord to Campina - click here to buy tickets online for this ride

Tickets on the date of your arrival won't be available until one month prior, but the pricing will remain the same. Try to get tickets for trains marked with the IR serial number, because they stop at fewer stations on the way

Almost there!

Please let us know at which time you will arrive to Câmpina so we can pick you up! After about 15 to 20 minutes we will reach the accommodation!

Please keep all travel documents and receipts for reimbursment!
